

[The First Day]

(1) On the Dignity of Mankind, by Mototsugu Nishino (Associate Professor, Aichi University).

(2) H. Kantorowicz' Theory of State, by Yoshio Bando (Professor, Kagoshima University).

(3) Functionalism and Social Integration, by Tatsuji Ohno (Hokkaido University).

(4) Reconsideration about the Legal Enforcement of Morality, by Yasuji Yamazaki (Associate Professor, Kobe University).

(5) A Consideration of Cities and Democracy, by Koji Nakamura (Associate Professor, Osaka University of Economics and Law).

(6) What Is Legal Thinking, by Hiroshi Kamemoto (Associate Professor, Kanazawa University).

(7) Law and Legal Thinking, by Naoki Kobayashi (Professor, Senshu University).

[The Second Day]

(1) What Is Good Thinking in Terms of Law, by Yasutomo Morigiwa (Professor, Nagoya University).

(2) The Transformation of the Idea of "the Political", by Osamu Kawasaki (Associate Professor, Hokkaido University).

Prof. HIKOTA KOGUCHI TAKEO OUCHI

9. International Law

1. The Japanese Association of International Law held its 1990 Spring Session (the 93rd Annual Meeting) at Kanazawa University on May 13, 1990. The programs were as follows.

(1) Report of Study

i. Chairman: Tomoyoshi Hirai (Professor, Osaka Municipal University).

The Significance of the CSCE (Conference on Security and Co-operation in Europe) Process in International Relations in Europe —from the Collapse of the Old Order to Formation of a New Order—, by Takako Ueda (Associate Professor, International Christian University).

ii. Chairman: Kanae Taijudo (Professor, Himeji Dokkyo University).

Non-military Measures of Sanction Based upon the Sole Decision of a State —on Standards for Determination of Legality—, by Kazuhiro Nakatani (Associate Professor, Tokyo University).

(2) International Symposium; Common Theme 'The Refugees Issue of South-East Asia and International Law'.

Chairman: Yoshio Kawashima (Professor, Osaka University).

(a) The Action of Australia and Its Problems, by James Crawford (Challis Professor, University of Sydney).

(b) The Action of Thailand and Its Problems, by Nitit Muntarbhorn (Professor, Chulalongkon University).

(c) The Action of Japan and Its Problems, by Hiroshi Honma (Professor, Surugadai University).

(d) From the Office of the UNHCR, by Norimitsu Mori (Legal Officer, Tokyo Office of UN High Commissioner for Refugees).

2. The Japanese Association of International Law held its 1990 Autumn Session (the 93rd Annual Meeting) at Seijo Gakuen University on October 13 and 14, 1990. The programs were as follows.

Common Theme: The Modern World and State Sovereignty.

[The First Day]

(1) Report of Study

Chairman: Hisashi Uchida (Professor, Daito Bunka University).

(a) Development of International Law and Changes of State

Sovereignty, by Hisakazu Fujita (Professor, Kansai University).

(b) International Organizations and State Sovereignty, by Ryuich Ida (Professor, Kyoto University).

(2) Report of Study

Chairman: Takao Sawaki (Professor, Rikkyo University).

(a) Institutional Co-operation in International Economic Relations, by Mitsuo Matsushita (Professor, Tokyo University).

(b) The “Extra-territorial Application” Issue of the Prohibition of Limitation of Competition Act of West Germany, by Koji Deguchi (Associate Professor, Kanazawa University).

(3) Special Address

State Sovereignty in the Today’s World, by Yuichi Takano (Professor, Yachiyo International University).

[The Second Day]

(1) Report of Study

Chairman: Wakamizu Tsutsui (Professor, Tokyo University).

(a) State Sovereignty and Telecommunications — The Significance in Modern World in the Field of Telecommunications Service, by Akira Kotera (Associate Professor, Tokyo University).

(b) The International Monetary and Financial System and Monetary Sovereignty, by Kazuaki Sono (Professor, Hokkaido University).

(2) Report of Study

Chairman: Fuji Kamiya (Professor, Keio Gijuku University).

(a) Review of the Central Dogma of Inter-state Relations, by Susumu Yamakage (Associate Professor, Tokyo University).

(b) The Role of States in Modern International Relations, by Masataka Kousaka (Professor, Kyoto University).

Prof. TOKUSHIRO OHATA

AKIRA SAKOTA