

Professor Yuzo Niiyama of Senshu University.

[Workshops]

The participants of the meeting divided into the following two theme groups, at which heated debate took place:

(1) 'Neue Einwendungslehre' (reporter: Professor Shuhei Maruyama, Chuo University; chairman: Professor Mitsumasa Tanabe, Nagoya University).

(2) The Statutory Prohibition of the Purchase by a Corporation of its Own Shares (reporters: Associate Professor Masahiro Maeda, Kyoto University and Associate Professor Ryo Kobayashi, Kyushu University; chairman: Professor Shigeyuki Maeda, Hosei University).

[Reports of Individual Studies]

Other individual reports delivered are listed below.

(1) Zum Ausschluß eines Gesellschafters, by Shuya Nomura (Associate Professor, Seinan Gakuin University).

(2) A Market-Regulation Approach to Tender Offers (Take-Over Bids), by Msaaki Furuyama (Associate Professor, Nagasaki University).

Prof. KYOICHI TORIYAMA KEISUKE MATSUOKA

7. Labor Law

The Japan Labor Law Association holds its general meeting twice a year. In 1992, the 83rd General Meeting was held at Nippon-bunri University on May 17 on the topic "The Mechanisms of Industrial Dispute Settlement." The 84th General Meeting was held at Senshu University on October 4 on the topic "The Flexibility of Labor and Law." The reports and discussions of the 83rd and 84th meetings appeared in the Journal of Labor Law, Nos. 80 and 81 respectively.

1. The 83rd General Meeting: The Mechanisms of Industrial Dispute Settlement.

(1) On the System to settle labour disputes, by Hidenobu Yasueda (Professor, Doshisya University).

(2) Dispute Resolution (DR) in the Enterprise, by Noriaki Kojima (Associate Professor, Toyama University).

(3) Labor Disputes and Settlement by judicial or non-judicial Compromise, by Ken-ichiro Nishimura (Associate Professor, Kyoto University).

(4) Mechanisms of Industrial Dispute Settlement: From a Legal-Sociological Point of View, by Shiro Kashimura (Professor, Kobe University).

2. The 84th General Meeting: The Flexibility of Labor and Law.

(1) Actual Conditions of Workers and Their Legal Problems, by Hiroyoshi Ito (Professor, Miyagi-Kyoiku University).

(2) Diversification of Employment Conditions of Part-time Workers and Legal Problems, by Ryuichiro Takagi (Associate Professor, Tohoku Gakuin University).

(3) The Temporary Workers: The Present Conditions and Legal Protection, by Katsuhiko Sunayama (Professor, Iwate University).

(4) Workers under New Types of Employment, by Hiroshi Ohyama (Professor, Iwate Prefectural Morioka Junior College).

(5) Atypical Forms of Employment in France, by Masahiko Iwamura (Associate Professor, Tohoku University).

Prof. KAZUHISA NAKAYAMA
YOICHI MOTOHISA