

---

---

ACTIVITIES OF ACADEMIC SOCIETIES

---

---

Jan. — Dec., 1995

---

---

1. Constitutional and Administrative Law

1. The Japan Association of Public Law held its 60th General Meeting at Kyoto University on October 9 and 10, 1995. During the two-day meeting, the following presentations were made under the two general topics, “The Right to the Pursuit of Happiness: Its Structure and Development” and “Effective Enforcement of Public Administration”.

[The First Day]

(1) Die Strukturanalyse des Grundrechts, nach Glück zu streben, by Koji Tonami (Professor, Tsukuba University).

(2) The Significance of the Constitutional Right to Self-Determination, by Isao Takenaka (Professor, Kyoto Sangyo University).

(3) Die Sicherstellung der Verwaltungspflichterfüllung, by Mitsuaki Usui (Professor, Tokyo University).

(4) Future Prospects of Administrative Enforcement, by Takemichi Hatakeyama (Professor, Hokkaido University).

[The Second Day]

A. Constitutional Law Session

(1) The Intellectual Origins of the Right to Pursue Happiness in the Declaration of Independence, by Junji Annen (Professor, Seikei University).

(2) Das allgemeine Persönlichkeitsrecht im japanischen Verfassungsrecht, by Ken Nemori (Professor, Saitama University).

(3) Une discrète considération sur le droit à l'intimité de la vie privée, by Masayuki Uchino (Professor, Tsukuba University).

(4) The Right to Life and the Idea of Autonomy, by Masakazu Doi (Associate Professor, Kyoto University).

(5) Environmental Right and Judicial Remedies, by Koichi Aoyagi (Professor, Yokohama National University).

B. Administrative Law Session

(1) Administrative Inquiry, by Tomiko Hayasaka (Research Assistant, Tokyo University).

(2) Issues in the System of Condemning Illegal Structures, by Hideo Fukui (Professor, Tokyo University of Technology).

(3) Economic Instruments for Administrative Law Enforcement, by Toshifumi Sowa (Professor, Mie University).

(4) Административные взыскания — административные наказания, распоряжения уведомлений и административные штрафы, by Katsuya Ichihashi (Professor, Nagoya University).

(5) Sicherstellung der Effektivität von kommunalen Selbstverwaltung, by Natsuo Sambe (Professor, Yokohama National University).

(6) Effective Enforcement of Economic Regulations: From the Perspective of Criminal Law, Kuniji Shibahara (Professor, Tokyo University).

2. The Japan Association for the Studies of Constitutional Law held its Spring Meeting at Meiji University on May 12, 1995 and its Autumn Meeting at Kyoto International Community House on October 8, 1995 under the unified topic of "Changes in Structure of the Post-war Japanese Society and the Constitution". The following presentations were made:

[The Spring Meeting]

(1) Five Decades of Local Autonomy in the Changing Social Structure of Postwar Japan, by Kenji Yamashita (Professor, Ritsumeikan University).

(2) Die Gewerkschaften und die Verfassung nach dem zweiten Weltkrieg — Idee und Realität der Arbeitsreform der Nachkriegszeit, by Satoshi Nishitani (Professor, Osaka City University).

(3) Transformation of Family and the Constitutional Law in Post-war Japan, by Junji Annen (Professor, Seikei University).

(4) The Role of Mass Media in the Formation of Public Sphere under the Constitution of Japan, by Junichi Hamada (Professor, Tokyo University).

[The Autumn Meeting]

(1) “Monopol” — Unternehmensgruppe — Unternehmen aus der Sicht von japanischer Verfassung, by Kiyokazu Torii (Professor, Sapporo Gakuin University).

(2) Politische Parteien als Medien zwischen Staat und Gesellschaft? by Hidenori Moto (Associate Professor, Nagoya University).

(3) The Structure and History of Postwar Mass Society in Japan, by Michio Goto (Professor, Tsuru Bunka University).

Prof. KENJI URATA

Assoc. Prof. (Aichi University of Education)

SATOSHI KOTAKE

2. Law of Property and Obligations

1. The Japan Association of Private Law held its 59th General Meeting at Kyoto University on October 7 and 8, 1995