

(3) From “Agreement” to the Process of Participation, by Harunori Inoue (Professor, Rikkyo University).

Prof. TETSUO KATO
Minebea Co., Ltd.
JUNKO SHIBATA

5. Criminal Law and Procedure

The Criminal Law Society of Japan held its 74th General Meeting at Tohoku University on May 25 and 26, 1996. The topics of the General Meeting are outlined as follows:

1. Reports of Individual Studies

(1) The Genealogy of the Theories of Illegality and the Rule of Law, by Minoru Honda (Associate Professor, Osaka University of Economics and Law).

(2) The Structure of Judgment concerning Foreseeability and Negligence of Management or Supervision, by Hiroshi Otsuka (Professor, Maritime Safety University).

(3) The Structure of Reopening of the Criminal Proceedings, by Katsuyoshi Kato (Professor, Aichi University).

(4) The Principle of Free Evaluation of Evidence and the Jury System, by Yutaka Umeda (Associate Professor, Shimane University).

(5) Reconstruction of the Ideal of “Protection” in Juvenile Justice — Taking Lessons from the Reform of Juvenile Justice, by Hiroyuki Kuzuno (Associate Professor, Shizuoka University).

2. Lecture

Undercover Investigators and Informants in the German Criminal Proceedings, by Thomas Weigend (Professor, Köln University), translated by Makoto Ida (Professor, Keio Gijuku University).

3. Reports of Joint Studies

(1) Modern Problems concerning Corporate Crimes

- * Introduction, by Kensuke Ito (Professor, Nagoya University).
- * Concerning the Doctrine of Criminal Liability of Corporations, by Yasuhiro Kanrei (Lecturer, Matsuyama University).
- * The Ways and Contents of Sanctions (Administrative Sanction/Punishment) against Corporations — The New System of Sanctions, by Toshio Kamiyama (Professor, Okayama University).
- * The Present Situation of Autonomous Measures to Prevent Illegal Actions by Corporate Organizations and the Legal Intervention — From the Viewpoint of the Practical Effect of Criminal Sanctions and the Legal Management of Danger, by Toshikatsu Aso (Attorney).
- * The Problems concerning the Current Doctrines of Criminal Liability and the Theories of Sanction, etc. — From the Aspect of Investigation and Trial-Maintenance, by Kunitaka Kogiso (Research and Training Institute of the Ministry of Justice).

(2) Search and Seizure, and the Warrant Requirements

- * Introduction, by Masahito Inoue (Professor, Tokyo University).
- * Anticipatory Warrants for Search and Seizure, by Noriyoshi Naganuma (Professor, Kanazawa University).
- * Particularity of Place to Be Searched and Things to Be Seized, by Hiroshi Oosawa (Professor, Nagoya University).
- * Necessary Measures Taken in the Execution of Search and Seizure, by Tadashi Sakamaki (Professor, Kobe University).

(3) Rethinking the System of Juvenile Justice, Focused on the Fact-Finding in the Hearing

- * Introduction, by Nobuyoshi Araki (Professor, St. Paul's University).
- * Report No. 1, by Syuji Iwamura (Criminal Affairs Bureau in the Ministry of Justice).
- * Report No. 2, by Kazuo Miyamoto (Life Safety Bureau in the National Policy Agency).

- * Report No. 3, by Tooru Wakahoi (Attorney).
- * Report No. 4, by Kenji Hirose (Judge, Maebashi District Court).
- * Report No. 5, by Toshio Sawanobori (Professor, Kokugakuin University).

4. Workshops

The participants in the meeting were divided into the following nine theme groups and discussed each problem actively. The themes and the organizers of these groups are as follows:

(1) The Significance and Method of Historical Study in Criminal Law, organized by Hirofumi Uchida (Professor, Kyushu University).

(2) Environmental Crime and Environmental Criminal Law, organized by Keiichi Nakayama (Professor, Kansai University).

(3) New Development concerning Euthanasia and Death with Dignity, organized by Katsunori Kai (Professor, Hiroshima University).

(4) Legal Aid and the System of Assigned Counsel and Public Defender for Suspects, organized by Hideaki Kawasaki (Professor, Tohoku University).

(5) Police Activities and the Principle of Constitutional State, organized by Atsushi Fukui (Professor, Hosei University).

(6) Criminal Prosecution, organized by Akimasa Takada (Professor, Osaka City University).

(7) Crime with Firearms and Its Control, organized by Kiyoshi Yasutomi (Professor, Keio Gijuku University).

(8) Organized Crime, organized by Tetsuya Fujimoto (Professor, Chuo University).

(9) Environment and Crime Prevention, organized by Tadashi Moriyama (Professor, Takusyoku University).

Prof. MINORU NOMURA
Assoc. Prof. (Maritime Safety University)
FUJIIKO KATSUMATA