

c. Legal Philosophy

The Japan Association of Legal Philosophy held its 1997 General Meeting at Aichi University on November 7 and 8, 1997.

The meeting program details were as follows:

(1) Autonomy of the Institutional World and Philosophy of Law, Keiichiro Tsuchiya (Professor, Meiji University).

(2) A Doubt about Linguistic Turn, by Hiroshi Kamemoto (Professor, Waseda University).

(3) Linguistic Turn and Postmodernism in Law, by Yoshiyuki Ishimae (Associate Professor, Meiji University)

(4) From Saussure to Postmodern Jurisprudence, by Takuya Nakahara (Lecturer, Meiji University).

(5) Die Spät Philosophie Husserls und Phänomenologische Rechtsphilosophie, by Shin'ichi Kojo (Professor, Toyama University).

(6) Gadamer's Philosophische Hermeneutik und Deutsche Rechtsphilosophie der Gegenwart, by Ken Takeshita (Professor, Kansai University).

(7) "Biopolitique" et les Nouveaux Droits, by Sonoe Omoda (Researcher, the Japan Society of the Promotion of Science)

(8) Rehabilitation of the Civil Society, by Nobuyuki Abe (Lecturer, Hakuo University).

(9) Toward Feminism as Social Theory, by Masako Inoue (Hokkaido University).

(10) Active Government and American Legal Realism, by Yoshihara Matsuura (Professor, Osaka University).

(11) Der "aktive Staat" und der dezentralisierte Einheitsstaat, by Tatsuji Ono (Associate Professor, Kanagawa University).

(12) On the Universality of Human Right in the Contemporary World, by Mitsue Fukada (Professor, Doshisha University).

(13) The Concept of Human Rights, Susumu Morimura (Hitotsubashi University).

TAKEO OUCHI