

Abuse of Rights of Dismissal, by Itaru Nemoto (Associate Professor, Kobe University of Mercantile Marine).

- (5) Legislative Issues to Restrain Dismissals, by Yoichi Shimada (Professor, Waseda University).

Publication:

The Japan Labor Law Association published a series of books in eight volumes named "A Series of Lectures on Labor Law in the 21st Century (Koza 21 Seiki no Rodoho)" in 2000.

8. Legal History

The Japan Legal History Association held;

2000

The 52nd General Meeting at Tokyo Metropolitan University in Tokyo, on April 22 and 23.

The 48th Study Meeting at Kansai University in Osaka, on September 30 and October 1.

The 52nd General Meeting

Symposium: The Role of Historical Thinking in Legal Scholarship

- (1) Introduction by Yoichi Nishikawa (University of Tokyo).
- (2)  $\iota \sigma \tau \omicron \rho \iota \eta$  as the Foundation of the Legal System, by Akira Koba (University of Tokyo).
- (3) Studies in Legal History: Current Situation, Problems, and Some Possibilities, by Makoto Okano (Meiji University).
- (4) What Does Legal Scholarship Expect from "Legal History"?, by Yoshihisa Nomi (University of Tokyo).
- (5) Historical Thinking in Legal Scholarship, Especially with Regard to Constitutional Law, by Yoichi Higuchi (Waseda University).
- (6) Individual Research Reports: The System for Removing Koshu, the Head of a Family, and the Meaning of Ie, the Family, in the Process of Drawing the Civil Cord in the Meiji era (the late 19th - century), by Fumie Uno (Kyusyu University).

- (7) The Jury System in Hungary Under the Double Rule of Austria-Hungary, by Rieko Ueda (Kumamoto University).
  - (8) The Local Jail in the Southern Delta of Chang Jiang in China in the Middle Qing Dynasty before Western Impact, by Izuru Ota (Kobe University of Commerce).
  - (9) Church and State in the 12th Century England, by Aya Sonoda (Hokkai Gakuen University).
  - (10) Cases that Had an Impact on Government Policy in the Late-Edo Era, by Hiromitsu Moriya (Nara Sangyo University).

The 48th Study Meeting: (The Treatment of Historical Materials — Legal Materials & Legal History)

- (1) Introduction, by Takao Ito (Kyoto University).
- (2) The Litigation Process and Legal Documents in the Edo Period — From the Documents Held by the Makino family in Maizuru, by Ryoji Igeta (Doshisha University).
- (3) Trial Documents and Records of the Kamakura Government, by Kazuki Takahashi (National Museum of Japanese History).
- (4) A Study of Kyori no Jo (Local Letters) in Ming Dynasty China, by Yoshiaki Nakajima (Kyushu University).
- (5) Criminal Court Records in 15th Century England, by Kaoru Kitano (Komazawa University).
- (6) Legal Documents Held by the Sulpicius Family and Found in Pompei, by Shigeo Nishimura (Kyusyu University).
- (7) The Present Situation of Preserving Original Civil Trial Documents, by Ichiro Nitta (University of Tokyo).

Individual Research Reports:

- (1) Ritsuryo (the ancient codes), Emperor and God, by Hiroko Shibata (Miyazaki Sangyo-keiei University).
- (2) Zaimyorei in Qing and Ming Dynasty China — Legal Rationality and Emotion, by Ando Sueyasu (Tokyo University of Foreign Studies).
- (3) The Punishment System for Minors in the Meiji Era, by Akiko Tanaka (Osaka University).

- (4) Shibe syokusyo ruisyu & Shibe syokusyo zassan (the Compilations of Shinto Rites) by Tsutomu Yamada (Kobe Gakuin Women's College), Isao Makita (Setsunan University) and Hisashi Hashimoto (Osaka University of Economics & Law).
- (5) Reading the Holy Book, 'Laws of Henry I', by Katsujiro Matsumura (Marine Technical College).

2001

The 53rd General Meeting at Meiji University in Tokyo, on April 21 and 22.

The 49th Study Meeting at Hiroshima University in Hiroshima, on October 13 and 14.

The 53rd General Meeting

Topic 1: The Criminal Code in Modern Japan

- (1) Introduction, by Hiroshi Takashio (Kokugakuin University).
- (2) Suffering Judges at the Turning Point in the Criminal Code, by Jyuro Iwatani (Keio University).
- (3) Beating and Tattooing as Criminal Punishments in Edo Governmental Law, Hiroshi Takashio (Kokugakuin University).
- (4) A Study on Criminal Law in the Fief of Uwajima — the Meaning Punishment by Beating —, by Noriaki Hayashi (Kwansei Gakuin University).

Topic 2: Precious Collection of Documents in Chinese Legal History

- (1) Introduction, by Makoto Okano (Meiji University).
- (2) Legal Documents in the Institute of Oriental Culture, University of Tokyo — The Oki and Niida Collections —, by Osamu Takamizawa (University of Tokyo).
- (3) A Study of the Naito Collection, by Ikuzo Okumura (Kansai University).

Individual Research Reports:

- (1) The Matter of Responsibility in Gratian Orders — the Formation

- of C. 15, q. 1 —, by Tatsushi Genka (University of Tokyo).
- (2) Legal History in Taiwan and the Saishi Kogyo (Non-Governmental Religious Community for Mutual Aid), by Takehide Goto (University of Tokyo).
  - (3) The Fortress Area and Its Ruling in the High Medieval Age Trier, Germany, by Toshio Sakurai (Kanazawa University).
  - (4) Grotius and the Development of International Law in the 20th Century, by Susumu Yamauchi (Hitotsubashi University).

The 49th Study Meeting

Individual Research Reports:

- (1) A Study on Papinianus Law: Pap. D. 46, 3, 95 pr./1 — Substantial Law and Basic Legal Studies —, by Makoto Ishikawa (Hiroshima University).
- (2) Cicero and the Study of Law, by Toshihiko Hirano (Hiroshima University).
- (3) An Approach to the Syokuzai genryu ko in China, by Ando Sueyasu (Tokyo University of Foreign Studies).
- (4) A Study on an Exceptional Procedure of Capital Punishment Case in Qing China, Hidemitsu Suzuki (Tohoku Gakuin University).
- (5) The System of Government Officials Dealing with Diplomatic Matters in the Ancient Japan, Junichi Kato (Nagoya Meitoku Junior College).
- (6) A Study of Villages and Their Rulers in the Age of Provincial Wars, by Ryo Hatakeyama (Tohoku Gakuin University).
- (7) A Thesis on the Constitutional Law Written by Takenosuke Nozawa in the Faculty of Law, Geneva University, in the Meiji era, by Shiro Okawa (Aichi University).
- (8) The Formation of the Concealment Law for Mentally-Handicapped People in the year 1900, by Takako Akakura (Kobe University).
- (9) Rache and Its Aftercare in Cities and Suburbs in the Late Medieval Age, by Kenji Wakasone (Kumamoto University).
- (10) Legal Interpretation in Tudor England and the Legal Studies of Coke — Epieikeia, Public Good, Fiction — by Yuzo Fukao (Kwansei Gakuin University).

Note:

The Japan Legal History Association covers not only Japanese Legal History but also Western Legal History (e.g. England, France, Germany, Rome) and Eastern Legal History (e.g. China, Korea).

Articles in the Legal History Review (Hoseishi Kenkyu) Vol. LI 2001

- The Punishment Principle of Complicity in Qin Law and Han Law: Concerning the Historical Change and Ideological Background, by Daisuke Mizuma (Japan Society for the Promotion of Science).
- Die Entstehung der Reichsritterschaft, by Taku Minagawa (Waseda University).
- On the Feudal Lord in the Late Medieval Village Community, by Ryo Hatakeyama (Tohoku Gakuin University).

9. Sociology of Law

The Japanese Association for the Sociology of Law held the 2001 General Meeting at Ochanomizu University on May 11, 12 and 13.

Symposium:*(1) General Session: Law and Ethics

- (A) Law and Ethics: problems and problematic, by Toshio Nakano (Professor, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies).
- (B) How Should We Deal with a Past Traumatized by Crimes Against Humanity?, by Tetsuya Takahashi (Associate Professor, University of Tokyo).
- (C) "Morality and Law" or "Morality in Law"?, by Kenichi Baba (Professor, Kobe University).

(2) 1st Sub-session: The Responsibilities of the State and of its Members

- (A) Against the Engendered Nation, by Aiko Ogoshi (Professor, Kinki University).
- (B) The Politics of State Responsibility, by Koki Abe (Professor,