

- (3) “The Problem of Europe in French Political Philosophy”
Nobutaka Miura (Professor, Chuo University).

Section Meeting C:

- (1) “The Organic Pathology of the European Committee: Bureaucratic Policy and Administrative Culture”
Ken Takeda (Graduate Student, Waseda University).
- (2) “The European Social Model and Social Dialogue: Formation of ‘Euro-Corporatism’?”
Satoshi Nakano (Associate Professor, Toyohashi Sozo College).
- (3) “Changes in the Postal Service in the Integration of the European Postal Market”
Kuninori Suzuki (Lecturer, Bunka Women’s University).

General Meeting:

- (1) “The EU Expansion and the Problems of Middle and East Europe: States, Nations, Security”
Kumiko Haba (Professor, Hosei University).
- (2) “The EU Expansion and the Draft Constitution: Towards a Pan-European Economic and Security Architecture”
Giuseppe Schiavone (Professor, University of Rome).

11. International Law and Organizations

I-A. The Japanese Society of International Law held its 2003 Spring Session at Senshu University, Tokyo, on May 11.

- (1) “The Formation of States and the Functions of International Law”
Zhi-an Wang (Professor, Komazawa Univsesity).
- (2) “New Developments in International Fisheries Law and the Freedom of High Seas Fishing”
Moritaka Hayashi (Professor, Waseda University).
- (3) “The Contemporary Significance of Regional Cooperation: From the Viewpoint of the Nordic States”
Miho Oshima (Professor, Tsuda College).
- (4) “The Temporal Jurisdiction in the Implementation of the International Covenants on Human Rights”

Yoshiharu Tokugawa (Professor, Ritsumeikan University).

In addition, Shigeru Oda, former Judge of the International Court of Justice, gave a special lecture reflecting on his 27 years of service at the Court.

I-B. The Japanese Society of International Law held its 2003 Fall Session in the form of an international symposium at Nagoya University on October 11 and 12, 2003. The main theme of the symposium was “Unity in Diversity: Asian Perspectives on International Law in the 21st Century”.

Day One

Keynote Address: “‘The Universal’ and ‘the Regional’ in a Globalizing World”

Yoshiro Matsui (President, JSIL; Professor, Nagoya University).

Panel A: Universalism and Regionalism in the International Law of Human Rights

- (1) “Effectiveness of the ‘Universal’ Human Rights Conventions: Views, Concluding Remarks and Follow-up Procedures under the UN Human Rights Conventions”
Kimio Yakushiji (Professor, Ritsumeikan University).
- (2) “Reservations to Human Rights Treaties: A Means of Promoting Cultural Relativism?”
Yogesh K. Tyagi (Professor, Jawaharlal Nehru University, India).
- (3) “The Concept of Human Rights in Asia, by Sienho Yee”
(Associate Professor, University of Colorado).
- (4) “A Trans-civilizational Perspective on International Law: With Special Reference to Universalism and Regionalism in Human Rights”
Yasuaki Onuma (Professor, University of Tokyo).

Panel B: International Criminal Justice and Asia

- (1) “Perspectives from Europe”
Michael Bothe (Professor, University of Frankfurt, Germany).

- (2) "Perspectives from Asia: The IMTFE, Other Ad Hoc Tribunals and Domestic Courts"
Raul Pangalangan (Professor, University of Philippines).
- (3) "U.S. Schizophrenia with Respect to Core International Crimes"
Jordan Paust (Professor, University of Houston, U.S.A.).
- (4) "Possibility of an International Criminal Tribunal in Post-Cold-War Asia: The Case of Cambodia"
Shuichi Furuya (Professor, Waseda University).
- (5) "Japan's View on the International Criminal Court"
Naoko Saiki (Director, Legal Affairs Division, MOFA).

Panel C: An Emerging Legal Order at Sea in Asia and Pacific—Regulation or Expansion of States' Jurisdiction

- (1) "Implementing the UNCLOS, and Beyond, with Particular Reference to the Protection of the Marine Environment"
Thomas Schoenbaum (Professor, International Christian University).
- (2) "Conservation and Management of Marine Living Resources in Asia-Pacific: Who is Responsible?"
Nguyen Hong Thao (Professor, Deputy Director, Department of Marines Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Vietnam).
- (3) "Impact on the Freedom of Navigation of Recent Practices on Fishing Resources Conservation and Marine Environmental Protection"
Atsuko Kanehara (Professor, Rikkyo University).
- (4) "Prevention of Crimes: By Whom and How?"
Akima Umezawa (Deputy Director, Ocean Division, Economic Affairs Bureau, MOFA).
- (5) "Forum for Dispute Settlement: Where and How?"
Cesare P. R. Romano (Center on International Cooperation, New York University). (Paper participation only.)

Dinner Speech: "Some Reflexions on the Problem of International Public Order"

Judge Hisashi Owada (International Court of Justice).

Day TwoPanel D: Prevention, Control and Settlement of International Disputes

- (1) "Some Legal Aspects of International Disputes"
Gerhard Hafner (Professor, University of Vienna, Austria).
- (2) "Public Policy Aspects of the Settlements of International Disputes"
Teruo Komori (Professor, Hokkaido University).
- (3) "Confidence-Building and Conflict Prevention in East Asia"
Yoshinobu Yamamoto (Professor, University of Tokyo).
- (4) "Toward an Equitable Resolution of Maritime Delimitation Disputes in East Asia"
Keun-Gwan Lee (Assistant Professor, Kyushu University).
- (5) "International Control of Environmental Disputes in Asia"
Zou Keyuan (Professor, National University of Singapore).

Panel E: Private International Law Issues in Asian Countries

- (1) "General Survey of Private International Law Issues in Asia"
Jun Yokoyama (Professor, Hitotsubashi University).
- (2) "The Possible Bilateral Agreements between Japan and Korea in the Field of Private International Law: A Korean Perspective"
Suk Kwang Hyun (Professor, Hanyang University, Korea).
- (3) "Towards the Codification of the Civil Code and the Code of Civil Procedure in Vietnam and Cambodia"
Akio Morishima (Professor Emeritus, Nagoya University).
- (4) "Inter-personal Laws in India"
Sujata Manohar (Former Justice of the Supreme Court of India).
- (5) "The Unification of Private International Law in Asia and the Role of the Hague Conference on Private International Law"
William Duncan (Deputy Secretary of the Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law).

Panel F: Nation Building and Post-Conflict Reconstruction

- (1) "Basic Issues on Nation-Building and Post-Conflict Reconstruction in International Law"
Sir Franklin Berman (Professor, Oxford University). (Paper participation only.)

- (2) “Nation-Building and the Role of International Organizations”
Mamoru Sadakata (Professor, Nagoya University).
- (3) “Democratic Institution for Peace and Development: The Cambodian Experience”
Peou Sorpong (Professor, Sophia University).
- (4) “International Assistance and the Tasks Ahead for State Building in East Timor”
Motoko Shuto (Professor, University of Tsukuba).
- (5) “Japan’s Contribution to the Post-Conflict Reconstruction in Afghanistan”
Kin’ichi Komano (Ambassador of Japan to Afghanistan, MOFA).

Final Session: In Search of the Future Collaboration of International Legal Scholarship in Asia and the World

Panelists: Professors Sienho Yee (University of Colorado), Haruo Saburi (Nagoya University) and Michael Bothe (University of Frankfurt).