

- (2) “Particular I: mainly Personal Evidence”
Makoto Tanabe (Professor, Hiroshima University)
- (3) “The Status Quo and Problems about Disclosure and Protection of Information in Intellectual Property Actions”
Eiji Katayama (Attorney, Daiichi Tokyo Bar Association)
- (4) “Particular II: mainly Documentary Evidence”
Kazuhiko Yamamoto (Professor, Hitotsubashi University)

5. Criminal Law and Procedure

The Criminal Law Society of Japan held its 85th General Meeting at Meijo University on May 26 and 27, 2007.

Individual Reports:

- (1) “Reconsidering the Justification of Self-Defense—Focusing on the Objective Requirements”
Hiroaki Myosho (Associate Professor, Matsuyama University).
- (2) “Purposes and Sentencing of Fines”
Kenji Nagata (Fulltime Lecturer, Kansai University).
- (3) “Neglect of Official Duty and Criminal Liability”
Akiko Saito (Associate Professor, Nagoya University).
- (4) “On the Theory of Hypothetic Consent—The Physician’s Duty of Disclosure and the Patient Consent”
Masaaki Muto (Professor, Toyo University).
- (5) “Searches and Seisures at Sea and Expectation of Privacy”
Hideki Narita (Professor, Kyoto-sangyo University).
- (6) “The Ground for Punishment of Criminal Participants and the Objective Responsibility for their Actions”
Kanehiko Toyota (Associate Professor, Kinki University).
- (7) “Self-defense and Provoked Assault”
Akiko Okamoto (Associate Professor, Kyoto-sangyo University).

Joint Studies:1. Economic Activities and Criminal Law

“Economic Activities and Criminal Law”

Mitsue Kimura (Professor, Capital Tokyo University).

- (1) “Illegal Activities of Corporations and the Way to Take Responsibility of Such”

Keiji Goto (Attorney at Law).

- (2) “Compliance Activities”

Akifumi Sugawara (Toyota Autocar).

- (3) “Individual and Corporate Liability for Business Crime”

Tomomi Kawasaki (Associate Professor, Doshisha University).

2. Victims and Criminal Procedure

“Introduction”

Tadashi Sakamaki (Professor, Kyoto University).

- (1) “Restitution through the Criminal Proceedings”

Toshihiro Kawaide (Professor, Tokyo University).

- (2) “Newly-introduced Proceedings to Allow Crime Victims Certain Litigation Acts”

Noriyoshi Naganuma (Professor, Sophia University).

- (3) “Significance and Issues of Legislation Enlarging the Crime Victims’ Competence”

Katsuyoshi Kato (Professor, Aichi University).

- (4) “Issues Concerning Victim Support by Lawyers and Victim Participation in Criminal Procedure”

Atsuko Ban (Attorney at Law).

3. Exploring Effective Community-based Corrections

“Introduction”

Akira Segawa (Professor, Doshisha University).

- (1) “The Current Issues of Release on Parole from Prisons and its Reform to Reduce Re-Offending”

Koichi Hamai (Professor, Ryukoku University).

- (2) “Reform of Community Supervision”

Tatsuya Ota (Professor, Keio University).

- (3) “The Challenges Regarding the Introduction of Community Service Orders and Transitional Care for Ex-Prisoners in Japan”

Kei Someya (Ministry of Justice).

- (4) “Proposal Regarding the Reform of Offender Rehabilitation System and Current Situation of Legislation”

Masao Kakizawa (Ministry of Justice).

Lecture

“The End of the Principle of Legality about Prosecution—German’s Situation in Comparison with European Countries”

Joerg-Martin Jehle (Professor, Goettingen University).

Interpreter: Rikizo Kuzuhara (Professor, Kansai University).

Workshops:

- (1) “Causation and Criminal Negligence”

Hiroshi Otsuka (Professor, Kobe University).

- (2) “Criminal Responsibility and Insanity Defense”

Mitsuko Hayashi (Professor, Rikkyo University).

- (3) “Terminal Care and Death with Dignity”

Katsunori Kai (Professor, Waseda University).

- (4) “Restorative Justice in the Criminal Justice System”

Toshio Yoshida (Professor, Hokkaigakuen University).

- (5) “Lay Person’s Participation in the Judicial Panel”

Katsuyoshi Kato (Professor, Aichi University).

- (6) “Retrial”

Norio Mizutani (Professor, Osaka University).

- (7) “Privilege against Self-Incrimination”

Takao Fuchino (Professor, Ritsumeikan University).

- (8) “Juvenile Justice and Civilian Participation”

Akira Hattori (Professor, Aichigakuin University).

- (9) “Reform of Criminal Law and Treatment of Sex Offenders”

Tetsuya Abe (Professor, Dokkyo University).

- (10) “International Criminal Law and ICC”

Osamu Niikura (Professor, Aoyamagakuin University).