

Chisato Shibayama (Professor, Otaru University of Commerce).

4. Plenary Session II :

Toshiro Tanaka (Professor, Keio University).

- (1) The Reform of EU Institutions and Decision-Making by the Lisbon Treaty
Yoshikatsu Washie (Professor, Doshisha University).
- (2) European Union Foreign, Security and Defense Policy under the Lisbon Treaty: Between Cooperation and Integration
Michito Tsuruoka (National Institute for Defense Studies (NIDS), Ministry of Defense).
- (3) The Lisbon Treaty and Britain: An “Awkward Partner” Revisited?
Yuichi Hosoya (Professor, Keio University).

12. International Law and Organizations

I. The Japanese Society of International Law held its 2010 Spring Session at Osaka University on May 8, 2010.

- (1) “Discretion of the International Court of Justice in the Construction of the Operative Clauses of Its Judgments”
Yoshiaki Sato (Professor, Seikei University).
- (2) “Attribution to a State of the Conduct by Private Persons as ‘de facto Organs’”
Tomoyuki Yuyama (Professor, Ritsumeikan University).
- (3) “‘Responsibility to Protect’ and the Fluctuation/Change of the Sovereign State Regime”
Tatsuo Akaneya (Professor, University of Tsukuba).
- (4) “Some Problems of ‘State Responsibility’ Concerning the Exploration and Use of Outer Space”
Setsuko Aoki (Professor, Keio University).
- (5) “The jura novit curia Principle in the International Court of Justice: With Reference to Its Recent Decisions”
Takane Sugihara (Professor, Kinki University).

II. The Japanese Society of International Law held its 2010 Fall Session at Kanagawa University on October 9 and 10, 2010.

Day One

- (1) “The Exercise of National Jurisdiction to the Piracy Jure Gentium: the Validity and Limits of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea”
Akio Morita (Professor, Hosei University).
- (2) “The Concept of the Use of Force Relating to the Law Enforcement Action in the Ocean”
Koichi Morikawa (Professor, Senshu University).
- (3) “The ‘Piracy’ in Somalia and the United Nations: In Relation to the Changing Functions of the UN Security Council”
Tetsuya Yamada (Professor, Nanzan University).
- (4) “The ‘Conflict’ in Somalia and the Piracy Problem off the Coast of Somalia: The Response by ‘International Society’ and the Problems thereof”
Akiko Sugiki (Associate Professor, Kobe Gakuin University).
- (5) “Law Enforcement in the Ocean: Some Current Issues”
Alfred H. A. Soons (Professor, Utrecht University).

Day Two

- (1) “Ethics in the Process of Making International Law”
Ryuichi Ida (Professor, Kyoto University).
- (2) “The Relation between the International Commercial Arbitration and the State Law Order”
Shunichiro Nakano (Professor, Kobe University).

Panel I: Accountability of International Organizations

- (1) “The Phase of ‘the Problem of the Accountability of International Organizations’: From the Perspective of Global Administrative Law Theory”
Hirokazu Miyano (Professor, Chuo University).
- (2) “The Law of International Organizations and Accountability: the Case of the Development Assistance Operations of the UNDP”
Hiroko Akizuki (Professor, Asia University).
- (3) “The Possibility and Problems of Constitutionalism in the UN Security Council: Focusing on the Practices concerning International Terrorism”

Masami Maruyama (Lecturer, Yamagata University).

- (4) “The Concept of the ‘Accountability’ of International Organizations: Its Meaning and Problématique”

Osamu Yoshida (Associate Professor, University of Tsukuba).

Panel 2: Corporate Social Responsibility and Global Compact

- (1) “The International Labor Standards and CSR: The Meaning and Limits of the Labor-Management Participation in the Standards of ILO”

Shinichi Ago (Professor, Kyushu University).

- (2) “The Study of CSR and International Legal Regulations”

Toru Umeda (Professor, Reitaku University).

- (3) “Multinational Enterprise and International CSR: Viewed from International Private Law and International Business Law”

Naoshi Takasugi (Professor, Doshisha University).

- (4) “Practical Problems concerning the Law in the Global Era: The Potential of EPA”

Yasunobu Sato (Professor, University of Tokyo).