
ACTIVITIES OF ACADEMIC SOCIETIES

Jan.-Dec., 2011

1. Constitutional Law

The Japan Public Law Association held its 76th General Meeting in Aichi at Meijo University on October 8 and 9, 2011. The following presentations were made under the unified theme of “The Transfiguration of the Function of the Nation State and Public Law Study.”

First Day:

“Globalization of Markets and the Positioning of the Nation State: From the Standpoint of Constitutional Law Study”

Tatsuro Kudo (Professor, Chuo University).

“The Globalization of Markets and the Positioning of the Nation State: From the Standpoint of Administrative Law Study”

Kenji Kamino (Professor, Nagoya University).

“The Subject of the Nation State and the Time Axis: the Constitution and the future in which the prediction is impossible”

Koichi Aoyagi (Professor, Meiji University).

“The Function of a Nation State from the perspective of the Time Axis: At the viewpoint of Administrative Law and Public Finance Law”

Mitsuaki Usui (Professor, Meiji University).

Second Day:

First Session, “The Globalization of Markets and the Nation State”

“Globalization of the Process for the Achievement of Policy and the Future of the Nation State”

Hiroki Harada (Associate Professor, Kyushu University).

“International Deployment of a Company and Investing Activities and the Nation State”

Takeshi Hujitani (Associate Professor, Hokkaido University).

“Positioning on the Public Law of the Company in Globalization”

Sachiyo Onishi (Lecturer, Hosei University).

“The Position of NPO in State Action”

Ichiro Tada (Professor, Ritsumeikan University).

“‘Freedom of Movement’ in Globalization”

Tomomi Takasa (Associate Professor, Dokkyo University).

Second Session, “Function of Nation State and Time Axis”

“Responsibility for the Future Generation and Function of the Nation State as seen from Environmental Law”

Hiroshi Kurokawa (Professor, Waseda University).

“‘The Public Finance Problem and the Time Axis’: From the Standpoint of Researchers into City Planning: The Function and Technique of a Continued Type and Reduced Type of City Planning”

Mari Uchiumi (Professor, Komazawa University).

“Education”

Ken-ichi Konno (Professor, Yamagata University).

“The Public Finance Problem and the Time Axis: From the Viewpoint of Intergenerational Equity”

Hiroyuki Koyama (Associate Professor, Okayama University).

“The Function of the Nation State and the Time Axis: Social Security”

Mitsuko Fujino (Professor, Fukushima Medical University).