

Multinational Banks and Exchange Rate Regimes”

Kazuya Takahashi (Doctoral Course, Chuo University)

- (3) “EU Economic Governance under the Economic Turmoils in EU”

Sadayoshi Takaya (Professor, Kansai University)

3. Group Sessions C:

Chaired by Koji Fukuda (Professor, Waseda University)

- (1) “Enlargement of Non-Common Part of the Common Agricultural Policy”

Yoshiaki Yutaka (Associate Professor, Yamaguchi University)

- (2) “Present situation and prospects of EU counterterrorism policy and policy of R&D in the security field”

Hironobu Nakabayashi (Researcher, Research Center for Crisis and Contingency Management, Meiji University)

- (3) “Euro-Japanese Relations in the ‘Year of Europe’, 1973-4”

Takeshi Yamamoto (Associate Professor, Nagoya University of Commerce and Business)

4. Plenary Session III:

Chaired by Noriko Yasue (Professor, Ritsumeikan University)

- (1) “From Trade Conflict to ‘Made in EC/EU’: the negotiation history of the Japan-EC trade conflict”

Hitoshi Suzuki (Lecturer, University of Niigata Prefecture)

- (2) “Domestic Tax Law and European Treaty”

Yasuyuki Kawabata (Professor, Yokohama National University)

- (3) “The Current State of the Union Citizenship Case Law: 20 years since its introduction”

Tamio Nakamura (Professor, Waseda University)

12. International Law and Organizations

I. The Japanese Society of International Law held its 2011 Spring Session at Meiji University on May 14, 2011.

- (1) “Evolution of the Norm on the Prohibition of the Use of Chemical Weapons through International Humanitarian Law and Disarmament Law Approaches”

Tatsuya Abe (Associate Professor, Aoyama Gakuin University)

- (2) “Some Problems in the Judgment concerning the Unconstitutional Character of the Nationality Act”

Fumihiko Sato (Professor, Meijo University)

Panel 1: Integration and Decentralization of International Economic Law

- (1) “The Role of Science in the WTO: The Limitations of the SPS Agreement and Emerging Governance”

Yoshiko Naiki (Associate Professor, Osaka University)

- (2) “The Multilayered Development of International Trade Regimes and its Social Context: The Normative Functions of Legal Rules in the WTO and FTA”

Satoshi Oyane (Professor, Doshisha University)

- (3) “The Normative Structure and its Dynamics in International Economic Law: An Analysis from the Perspective of Constitutionalization”

Kazuyori Ito (Lecturer, University of Shizuoka)

- (4) “Interpretation of the WTO Agreements and the Relevant Rules of International Law: Meaning of “The Parties” in Article 31, item 3 (C) of the VCLT”

Yoshinori Abe (Professor, Gakushuin University)

- (5) “The Status of International Law-Making and Treaty Interpretation”

Koji Nishimoto (Associate Professor, Senshu University)

Panel 2: Contemporary Challenges and Legal System concerning the Arctic

- (1) “Emerging Challenges regarding the Changing Arctic”

Kikuko Kato (Director, Ocean Division, International Law Affairs Bureau, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan)

- (2) “Territorial and Maritime Claims in the Arctic: Past and Present”

Tomoko Fukamachi (Associate Professor, Fukuoka Women’s University)

- (3) “The Development of the Navigational System in the Arctic: The Legal Status of Northwest Passage”

Kae Oyama (Associate Professor, Chukyo University)

- (4) “Municipal Law and International Law regarding Ship-Source Pollution: Analyzing the Canadian Law in the Arctic Sea”

Akiko Okamatsu (Associate Professor, Hosei University)

- (5) “International Politics in the Arctic: Triangle of Global Governance, Sub-regional Cooperation, and State Politics”

Miho Oshima (Professor, Tsuda College)

II. The Japanese Society of International Law held its 2011 Fall Session at Kwansei Gakuin University on October 8 and 9, 2011.

Day One

- (1) “Transitional Justice, Peacebuilding and International Law: What Role is Played by the UN in Post-conflict Peacebuilding?”

Testuo Sato (Professor, Hitotsubashi University)

- (2) “Transitional Justice and the Norms of International Law”

William Shabas (Professor, Middlesex University)

- (3) “Peacebuilding and Democratization in Africa”

Makiko Toda (Professor, Kyoto Women’s University)

- (4) “The Establishment of the ‘Rule of Law’ and Legal Assistance”

Dai Yokomizo (Professor, Nagoya University)

- (5) “Transitional Justice and International Criminal Justice: Changes and Challenges”

Keiko Ko (Professor, Mie University)

Day Two

- (1) “The Human-Rights Oriented Nature of International Law”

Kohki Abe (Professor, Kanagawa University)

- (2) “Human Rights’ Impact on the Basic Structure of International Private Law”

Yasushi Nakanishi (Professor, Kyoto University)

Panel 1: Challenging the Impact of Human Rights on the International Legal Order and its Limitation

- (1) “Human/Individual Rights and Diplomatic Protection”

Yumi Nishimura (Associate Professor, The University of Tokyo)

- (2) “General Specialty of Human Rights Treaties and Rules of Treaty Reservation”
Tetsuya Nakano (Associate Professor, Kansai University)
- (3) “Impact of the Human Rights Norm on Rules of Sovereign Immunity”
Akihiro Matsui (Lecturer, Osaka Institute of Technology)
- (4) “The International Trade Order and Human Rights”
Satoru Taira (Professor, Osaka City University)

Panel 2: Security and Protection of Ordinary Residents

- (1) “The United Nations Security Council and the Protection of Civilian Persons: Assigned Peace Keeping Operation and its Background”
Nanako Shimizu (Associate Professor, Utsunomiya University)
- (2) “The Impact of ‘Human Security’ on International Law”
Jun Matsukuma (Professor, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies)
- (3) “The Protection of ‘Civilian Persons’ in the Changing Diplomacy of the European Union”
Takako Ueda (Professor, International Christian University)
- (4) “The Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of Armed Conflict”
Kenji Narabayashi (Associate Professor, Ehime University)